Walk and Talk at Fountains Abbey

Jenny Jones reports:

On Saturday 18th January a group of 29 people met for a “Walk and Talk” get together at Fountains Abbey in Yorkshire.

We were able to enjoy the unexpected sunshine for a picnic and walk through the deer park.

Gemma McLean adds:

The following beautiful photographs were taken by Eve Nicholls (shared via the Purley People Facebook page).

Bill Dunbar

Pauline Grimshaw writes:

A group of us attended the service, taken by Pauline Grimshaw at Accrington Crematorium on the 13th of January to remember and to celebrate the earthly life of Bill Dunbar who passed into the spiritual world on Boxing Day.

Bill was a hardworking, much loved member of our church in Accrington but came to Kearsley with son Keith and granddaughter Annabeth at least once a month. It was good to meet members of his family and to hear their memories of his life. He was a very sociable, friendly person who will be much missed by all his family and his many friends. We had the opportunity to meet for a reception afterwards to renew old friendships.

Purley from the Air

Mike Wilson has shared these fantastic aerial photos of Purley Chase that he took from his aircraft (pictured below) in 2005 and 2008.
