Bank Transfers

Sally Field (Company Accountant) writes:

Some banks have been having some problems when it comes to adding new payee's to make transfers online. Recently, RBS, Natwest and some other banks added to their online banking facility a check to see if the account name that you have added matched the bank details provided.

For some accounts it recognises the details and some it does not. The new Santander bank account details for Purley and Conference are one of those accounts for some reason it does not recognise.

You should still be able to make the payment, even though it does not match the account name with the sort code and account number by accepting that you know the details are genuine. The new bank details for conference and Purley that have been circulated recently are correct and can be found on the conference website to make donations to conference and the Purley Chase Centre website to make payments to Purley.

Just to make it clear again, Conference's bank details are:

Account Name: The General Conference of the New Church

Account Type: Business/Corporate

Sort Code: 09-02-22

Account Number: 10899348

And Purley Chase Centre account details are:

Account Name: Purley Chase Centre

Account Type: Business/Corporate

Sort Code: 09-02-22

Account Number: 10899393

If your bank still does not accept the details provided then you will need to contact them.

Beautiful Azaleas

Gemma McLean writes:

Rachel, the manager at Purley Chase, has shared this lovely photo of the Purley Azaleas in bloom (they bloom every May without fail).

Although not quite on the scale of Purley, my Mum is very proud of her Azalea, which has bloomed this month, as it does every Spring, in our front garden.

A News Puzzle - Continued

Rev'd Alison Southcombe writes:

John of Patmos watches the descent of New Jerusalem from God depicted in a 14th century tapestry.

Gemma McLean adds:

A reminder of the original feature by Rev'd Mary Duckworth in E-News issue 50:

It happened... 250 years ago...seen by only one person here on earth...

What was this news and how was it reported at the time?

E-News would love to hear from any reader who could tell us more (in no more than 100 words).
