Together Online 2020 - July 29th and 30th

It's one week to go now before we meet up 'Together Online'. This replaces our residential annual Conference and serves as our AGM.

If you have not already done so, please download the papers and make yourself familiar with them. The details include a timetable, how to join in and how to vote.

So much work has been put into this event, prepared for you to enjoy together. We look forward to sharing the results with you.

Autumn Fellowship (Formerly Autumn Studies)

Colin Skinner reports:

Providing there is no major setback in the Coronavirus outbreak, it has been agreed that the Autumn Fellowship will go ahead as planned. The event will be at Purley Chase from Monday evening 28th September to Friday morning 2nd October. A typical day involves study sessions in the morning led by Rev Mary Duckworth and Rev Bruce Jarvis, free time in the afternoon and some form of social activity in the evening. After many months of lockdown here is the opportunity to meet up again with friends and meet new ones following Purley's re-opening in September. Booking forms should be completed on the Purley website in the usual way.

Kearsley News

Pauline Grimshaw reports:

Finally, after our Church was last opened for worship on Mothering Sunday, we reopened for worship on the first Sunday in July and how lovely it was to be together again. Things were not quite as they were before - hand washing facilities were in the vestibule and all offertories were put in envelopes also available in the vestibule. Rows were marked for social spacing but we all managed very well.

Hymns were chosen and the organ was played quietly whilst we sang the hymns in our minds. Afterwards we stayed in church, and enjoyed eating Roy's birthday cake and talked for England! It was especially lovely to see that Verity had changed from being a baby into a toddler over the past four months. It really was lovely being with real-life human beings again.

Upcoming Family Services

Jenny Jones writes:

The Youth and Family Team and the NCYA welcome everyone to their next two Zoom family services.
