Does the Lord Forgive?

Revds Christine Bank and Becky Jarratt report:

The session planned for parents is filling up fast, so we are offering another session during the day. All are welcome. The two sessions are as follows:

- 7-9 pm on Saturday, 28th November (with a specific focus for parents) and
- 1-3 pm on Wednesday, 2nd December (for those who are at home during the day)

It's quite simple – the Lord's Prayer says 'forgive us... as we also forgive'. What does that really mean for us? And when someone has deliberately wronged us can we approach the situation with a true spirit of forgiveness? Should we forgive everything? Do we "turn the other cheek"?

We will discuss in which circumstances we think we will be forgiven, and think about what we ourselves can forgive. The teachings of the New Church will help to guide us through these dilemmas. We will also think about how we can talk about forgiveness to our teens and children, or to other people we come into contact with.

We invite you to join us for a range of whole and small-group discussion. Bring drinks and snacks! Email Becky for the Zoom code, specifying which session you would like to attend: beckyjarratt@gcnc.org.uk

Advent Reminder

Gemma McLean writes:

Don't forget to start using the interactive advent calendar on December 1st next week. You can find the calendar via the link below:

Film Night

Robert Clark reports:

On Saturday Dec 5th at 5pm the Youth & Family Team will be doing our film night 2!

In "Inside Out", Eleven-year-old Riley moves to San Francisco, leaving behind her life in Minnesota. She and her five core emotions, Fear, Anger, Joy, Disgust and Sadness, struggle to cope with her new life.

We can send a DVD or you can watch online before next Saturday. If you're interested, please could you let me know:
