A Note of Thanks

Revd Gillian Gordon writes:

Thank you to everyone who has sent me messages of support and for their prayers following a bad break to my leg. I only went out in the back garden for a couple of minutes then skidded on the mud following huge rainfall. That's life!

Film Club and Quiz Nights

Jenny Jones reports:

Film Club - Saturday 30th
January at 5 pm

Is life all cupcakes and rainbows? Or do you think you will only be truly happy when you get something specific that you want?

Trolls is a film that has something for everyone. The brightly-coloured animation may make you think it is just for kids, but the awesome soundtrack is guaranteed to get everyone's feet tapping! From True Colours to Can't Stop the Feeling, there is music from everyone's era.

We will think about that gives us long-lasting happiness, and how this is related to our relationship with the Lord. Join us to discuss the spiritual themes from the film in groups. There will be groups for children, teens and adults, so everyone is welcome!

Please let Robert Clark know if you are coming. Email him with the names and ages, where appropriate, of the people who will attend: robert.clark@gcnc.org.uk

Quiz Nights

One of the ways that the Youth and Family team have been keeping in touch with families, young people and children since last March has been through fun quizzes and games on Zoom. These are held every couple of weeks and everyone is welcome to attend. You can join in as a family... or you can join in on your own. You can come to all our activities... or just come to the ones you particularly like the look of. So, if you are interested in joining us then please get in touch!

We have held a wide range of activities and played games such as Pictionary and Charades and have also had a range of quiz topics including "Through the key hole" where everyone sent in obscure corners of their house and gardens and we had to guess who lived there! Last week, our quiz theme was "Animals"... trickier than it sounded!

Below is a link to some of the questions that we were faced with. If you would like to have a try then please email/photograph your written answers to jenny.jones@gcnc.org.uk and we will announce the answers (and winners) in the next E-news. You may be awarded with a virtual trophy or medal!
