Conference Council 2019

The General Conference of the New Church

Here is an exciting opportunity to use your valuable skills in a team working for the future of Conference

Time to spare? Recently retired?

Young and wish to make a difference?

Conference Council gives an opportunity to use the skills you have gained in your workplace and life and then to learn new ones working alongside a more experienced member.

Working alongside our ministry and education providers we help maintain Purley Chase and take responsibility for many properties and Conference's finance.

This is a real opportunity for you to use your skills and influence while working in a progressive team and make a difference to future of our Church.

If you would like to know more please phone Judith on 01425 279408 or any Council Member.

We would love to hear what you can offer.

Easter in Bournemouth

A lovely Sunny Easter morning with 25 people in a well spaced Bournemouth Church
