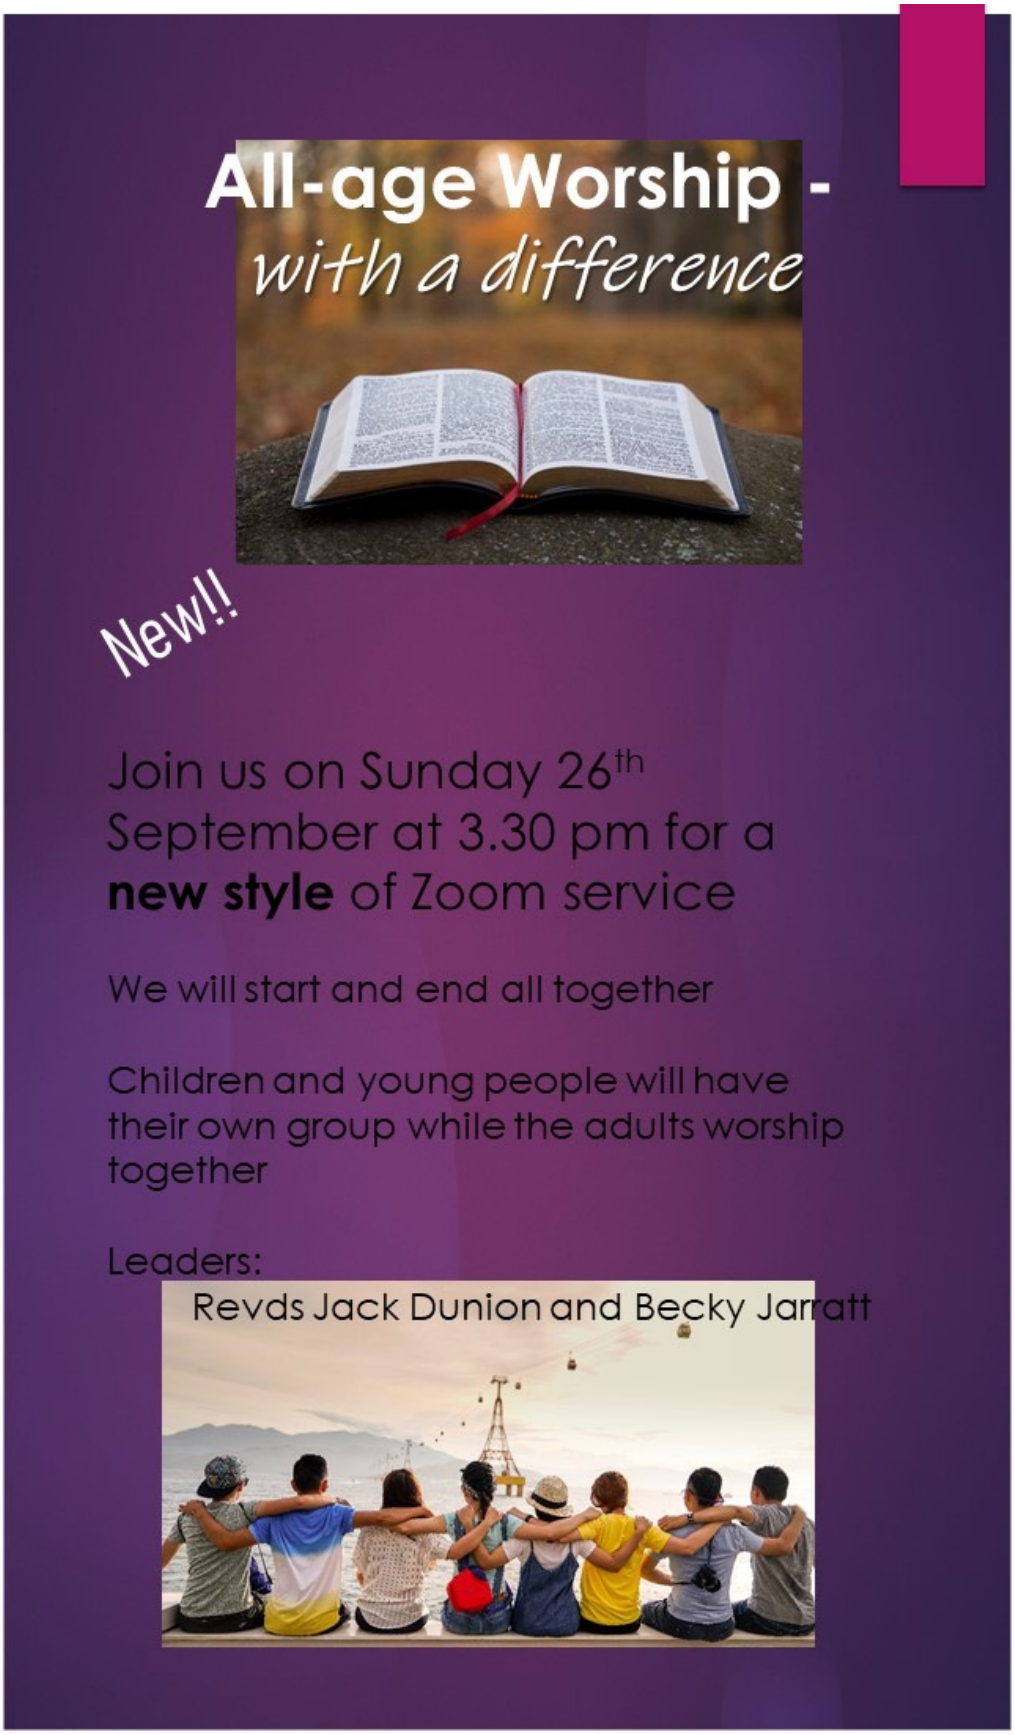
Zoom Worship News

Revd Becky Jarratt writes:

Sunday Service

We are trying a new form of worship this Sunday! The beginning of the service will be as usual, but after the first hymn we will split up into adults and children/young people. This will give the chance for the adults to have a deeper presentation while the children discuss the theme. We are following the Home Worship scheme, and are looking at the Parable of the Sower.

Please feed back afterwards – we genuinely want to know if it did or did not work for you before we consider trying it again in the future.



If you wish to be added to the Zoom Worship list, or have any feedback, please email the co-ordinator, Becky: becky.jarratt@generalconference.org.uk

Christmas Day
We will be holding Zoom Worship on Christmas Day at 10.30 am. Further details about Christmas services will follow.

Kensington Hymn CDs
We have been given around 100 CDs of recorded hymns made by Howard Turner at Kensington. They are a wonderful resource for us because they not only have Lionel Friend playing the organ or piano, but also the congregation singing. They are a fantastic addition to the hymns played by Helen Laidlaw at Paisley.

Sincere thanks to the Turner and Friend families for passing on these CDs for our use.
