First New Council Meeting

Muriel Morgan writes:

The new Conference Council met for the first time on Zoom on Monday 11th October 2021.

All eight members were present, and we were joined by Revd. Helen Brown in her new role as Interim Spiritual Leader. Unfortunately, the Company Accountant was unable to attend.

With a lot of work to be done by the Council, items on the Agenda had to be prioritised. Please feel assured, however, that we will endeavour to deal with each issue with care and integrity in due time.

The Council was pleased to confirm the appointment of Revd Helen Brown as Interim Spiritual Leader until March 2022, and also that of Revd Becky Jarratt as Secretary of the Committee of Ministers for the remaining current term of that office.

It was recognised that, following recent events, all Conference employees (ministerial and lay) needed to be assured of continued employment and provided with a personal line-manager. The Council therefore reviewed the full list of employees and agreed a provisional line-manager for each one. New line-managers, once confirmed, will be in regular contact with employees in their care to offer personal and professional support.

It was a pleasant experience to meet all the members of the new Council, and it is encouraging to meet people with such good heart willing to use their knowledge and experience to further our beloved Church.

While there is a lot of work to be done, we would like everyone of you to feel able to contact any of us if you have any issues or queries we can help you with. We are here to serve the Church and its members.

Advent Carol Reminder

Gemma McLean writes:

Thank you to those who have emailed me with their favourite Christmas carols for the upcoming online advent calendar. If you have a favourite carol and haven't already told me, please let me know. Ideally tell me your top 3 to avoid duplication.
