Advent Carols Update

Gemma McLean writes:

Thank you to everyone who sent me carol suggestions. I now have the 24 I needed, along with 24 Christmas trivia questions.

I look forward to sharing with you the online advent calendar at the end of this month.

Seaburn Dene Remembrance Sunday

Lynne Griffiths reports:

Seaburn Dene met for their Remembrance Sunday Service led by Nicky and Hazel.

We asked for contributions from the congregation and some readings from the Word, prayers and music were suggested and utilised. The theme was peace and it was certainly peaceful as we joined the cenotaph for the service and stood in silence.

A fitting occasion to remember the sacrifice of so many and to focus upon a future of peace. We will remember them.

Zoom Services over Christmas

Revd Becky Jarratt writes:

The pattern of our Zoom services over Christmas will vary slightly from usual. These are the following dates and times for our services:

Sunday 12th December	3.30 pm	NCYA Nativity
Sunday 19th December	3.30 pm	Lessons and Carols
Saturday 25th December	10.30 am	Christmas Day Worship
Sunday 26th December	No service

The following Zoom will be on 9th January at 3.30 pm.

I would like to thank everyone involved in making these Zoom services possible. If you would like to contribute in any way – reading, doing the tech, creating hymns, please do contact me! If you have volunteered before and haven't been asked in a while, please do remind me – my brain doesn't appear to be getting any younger.

And now for some further information about the NCYA service:

On Sunday 12th December the family service on zoom will take the form of an all-age Nativity Play, with carols for everyone to sing. The story of the first Christmas will be re-enacted by families and church groups from around the country. Log in between 3.15 & 3.25pm to get a front row seat!
