Excerpts from Pray as you Go by Revd Helen Brown

A quote from Larry Dossey, an American doctor who has written about prayer: "Prayer is an attitude of the heart."

When we pray from the heart, there comes as answer, a gentle perception of truth. A light for our path in life. When we live by that truth, our lives become a living prayer.

Re: Recent Articles by Revd Bruce Jarvis

Thank you Alan Misson and David Lomax for two very thoughtful and stimulating articles. Apart from the intrinsic value of the two pieces, it's also good to see responses to articles, which stimulates further thought. It's also encouraging, in these days when we longer have a printed paper magazine, to know we still do have people amongst us willing and able to "put pen to paper", so to speak! It is an important element in our Church life for our minds to be stimulated by applied doctrinal principles, so that we can see their application in real time and life to some of the most difficult and controversial issues of our time. Thanks once again to Alan and David.
