Council Resignation

Margaret Cowie writes:

It is with regret that Mrs Muriel Morgan has, for personal reasons, resigned as a Trustee and member of Conference Council.

She will continue to be the recorder of the Council Minutes.

We thank her for her Service both past and present.

Pastoral Support

Revd Becky Jarratt writes:

We realise that there is not the same opportunity for a pastoral conversation after a service on Zoom as there might be in a physical church.

If you would like some pastoral support, please contact Revd Gill Gordon, who will put you in touch with someone you can speak to: gillian.gordon@generalconference.org.uk

Purley Event Changed Details

In issue 129 of E-News, we included an advert for an event entitled Begin a New Life at Purley from 1st to 3rd of July 2022.

This event has now changed (the dates remain the same) to:

How the Bible and the Writings of the New Church can equip us to cope with the anxieties of recent world events

With Dave Gaffney and Grant Brackley.

Come along to a weekend of sharing our thoughts and discussing various aspects around disease and war that have heightened our anxiety over the past 2 years.

Discover what the Bible and Swedenborg have to say which will help to bring peace into our lives and maybe equip us to help others.

This will be a fairly relaxed weekend with plenty of chat, good food and leisure time to get to know and enjoy time with each other.

The cost for this event is:

En-suite: £151. Standard: £129
