New Appointments

Margaret Cowie, Chairman, writes:

It is with great pleasure that the Council announces the appointment of Ms Charlotte Gilson to the role of Bookings Manager for the Purley Chase Centre. There were two applicants for the post, both conducted very good interviews via Zoom, but it was felt that Charlotte was the more suitable.

A new post entitled Media Coordinator was advertised in E-News. There was only one applicant, Mrs Muriel Morgan, who was also interviewed via Zoom. Following a very satisfactory interview, Muriel was offered and accepted the post.

The Council is delighted to welcome Charlotte and Muriel to their new roles and we hope that they find the work both satisfying and pleasurable.

Whit Sunday and Jubilee Celebrations at Kearsley Church

Carolyn Kennion writes:

How did you spend the Jubilee weekend?

At Kearsley Church Revd. Brian Talbot led the Whit Sunday morning service of worship which included prayers of gratitude for the Queen and her faithful service in her 70 years as monarch. In Sunday School the children compared pictures of Queen Elizabeth II seated on the throne with one of John's vision of the Lord on the throne as described in Revelation chapter 4. We then made Union Flag table decorations and had a mini Jubilee party with games such as 'Pin the tail on the corgi', horse race, a picture hunt and 'The Queen Says' (a variation on 'Simon Says').

Everyone joined together in the suitably decorated church hall for a 'Bring and Share' lunch with a delicious variety of food. Two quizzes tested our knowledge and recall of facts about past kings and queens as well as the current queen. To round off our celebrations each of the children was presented with a Jubilee mug and coaster as a reminder in years to come of a special weekend.

Purley Chase Jubilee Cream Tea

Rachel Gilsenan writes:

During the week of the Queen's Jubilee, Purley put on a Jubilee inspired cream tea for over 50 people on Thursday 2nd June.

Included in the day's festivities were homemade individual Victoria sponges, red, white, and blue chocolate dipped strawberries, union jack cupcakes, old English fruit cake, shortbread, and traditional sandwiches without crusts.

Drinks were also provided with Pimms being offered as an extra to toast this great occasion.

Regular faces booked to come on this special day with Church members and Ministers also being part of the party.

The day was a real success with guests wearing red, white and blue and staff members also dressing up.
