In Memory of Rhoda Wilson (nee Grange)

David Friend writes:

It has come to our notice that Rhoda Wilson, (nee Grange) passed away on 7th March this year at the age of 81, after an active and diverse life focussed on art and environmental issues. Although Rhoda has been out of touch with the church for some time, some members of the Societies at Kearsley, Brightlingsea, Glasgow and Kensington may remember Rhoda as the daughter of Revd. Alan Grange.

The index consists of twenty A5 pages.

NCYA AGM

Chris Chambers writes:

The AGM of the New Church Youth Association (NCYA), kindly hosted at the Bradford New Church, took place on Saturday 18th June. The church was decorated with a colourful exhibition of the work produced by children throughout the country on the theme of usefulness.

The afternoon was divided into two halves. The first part was the business meeting of which there were a couple of highlights. The Secretary of the NCYA, Gwendolen Rowe, talked through the new attractive website for the NCYA, which promotes its work with children and young people. Pauline Grimshaw was presented with a copy of her interesting history of the Sunday School Union from 1939 to the NCYA of the present day. All readers of eNews are encouraged to obtain a copy for a minimum donation of £3, as reading this will surely bring back happy memories. (Available at conference in July or from Carolyn Kennion)

The second part of the afternoon focused on the children, of which there were around 19, most of them from the locality. The President of the NCYA, Carolyn Kennion, skilfully engaged the children in the story of the Parable of the Talents and then the children worked in small groups on diverse activities. It was wonderful to see the church full of children, from pre-school to teenagers, as well as some of their parents. This is a testament to the dedication and commitment of Shannon Fitzgerald, as the church is clearly an integral part of the local community, committed to serving its needs.
