The SOLCe Summer Gathering

Revd Robin Wooldridge:

The annual SOLCe Summer Gathering was held on Saturday 2nd July at Wellspring House. The theme of this year's meeting was 'Connecting to the Divine'. There were four presentations throughout the day. Stephen Russell-Lacy and Helen Brown gave innovative talks about different aspects from the Teachings. A lively 'Q & A' section followed each presentation.

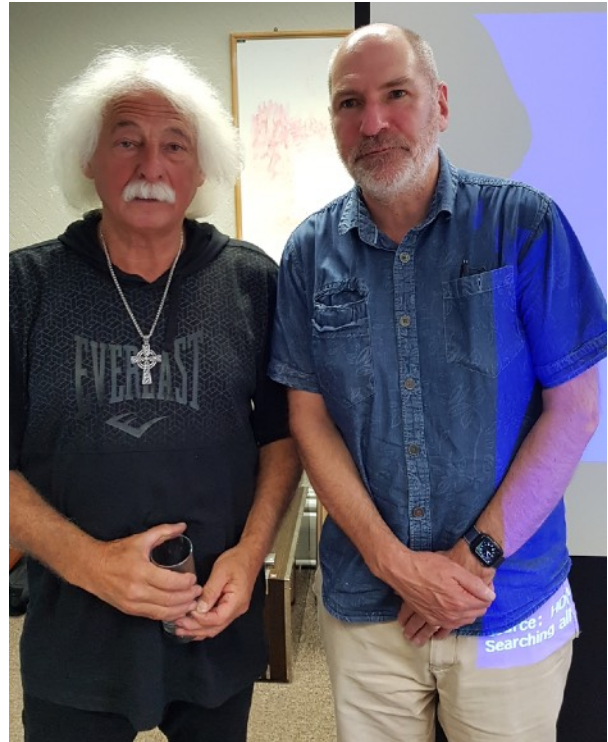

Solce was delighted to welcome two distinguished guests both of whom gave well received talks. Rev Rd Warren Leigh-Boyd gave an enlightening presentation on behalf of the British Gnostic Church and Dr Avtar Singh gave an insightful talk about the importance of music to the Sikh religion. Rev Dr Warren showed an enormous depth of understanding as he cross referenced Hindu and Buddhist teachings with those of early Christianity. Dr Singh brought along some Indian instruments and explained how the structure of the various ragas related to the sections of the Sikh holy scriptures.

His exceptional playing of these unusual instruments left a lasting impression on all present.

The Summer Gathering saw the largest number of attendees with many having travelled from the four quarters of the UK.
