Paul Morgan

Sue Chesworth writes:

Following discussions with Paul, Conference Council and SOLCe it has been decided Paul will be taking a sabbatical of 6 months from his ordination studies. The sabbatical will begin on September 1st and finish at the end of February 2023. During this period Paul will be able to join church activities but will not be able to lead Services, groups or participate in Services in any way.

This is an opportunity for Paul to have a period of reflection and personal development. If you have any queries regarding this situation please contact me at sue.chesworth@generalconference.org.uk

Thank you. Sue Chesworth
