Harvest at Dalton New Church

Gwendolen Rowe writes:

On 9th October members of Dalton New Church gathered for their Harvest service. It was led by Gwendolen Rowe on the theme of the growing seed, growing into a fruitful harvest which can then be shared with others.

The congregation were invited up by Jean Mrozek to bring their gifts for their chosen Charity. Dalton collect craft items and other dry goods for CART -

Christian African Relief Fund.

This is a Yorkshire based charity which send out to Africa, particularly to children. This charity is well supported by the community around Dalton and consequently there was a beautiful array of items, as you can see in the photo. It was a lovely service enjoyed by everyone.

Advent Calendar 2022 - Final Call

Gemma McLean writes:

Thank you to everyone that sent me contributions for this year's advent calendar as per my request in the last issue of E-News. I have received some excellent songs and carols that are unique to this year.

We now have 6 slots remaining so if you have a favourite carol or piece of Christmas music (even if it was used last year - I can use a different version), please let me know. Otherwise I'll have to fill the remaining slots with my own favourites!

Please email me at gemma.mclean@generalconference.org.uk with suggestions.

Home Worship Stats

Gemma McLean writes:

The Home Worship team thought people might be interested to know of the current readership stats:

Distribution Numbers

15 postal copies are sent out each quarter

78 email copies are sent out each quarter

Some of these recipients may also forward it on and share with others.

Plus it's available on the web site for people to download so some people may access it there.

We know that Swedenborg Boekhuis pass it on to a number of people in Holland and Belgium, and we also had word from the Swedenborg Library (Bryn Athyn College) that they collect the Home Worship services for their archives.
