Mrs Madeleine Taylor

News has been received that Mrs Madeleine (Maddy) Taylor passed into the spiritual world on Saturday, 5th November, at the age of 91 years.

Maddy has been an outstanding servant of the General Conference, most notably being the first of our CAM Co-ordinators, and locally for many years at Seaburn Dene New Church. Maddy had been in declining health recently, and she slipped away peacefully in the presence of a number of her family.

We hold in our hearts and prayers, Maddy's extensive family, especially her children, Helen, Peter, Rosemary and Mark, and her sister Pamela Bain and brother Michael Stanley.

You are invited to join the family for a Celebration of the Life of Madeleine Taylor
Sat 19th November

Poppleton Tithe Barn, Church Ln, Nether Poppleton, York YO26 6LF

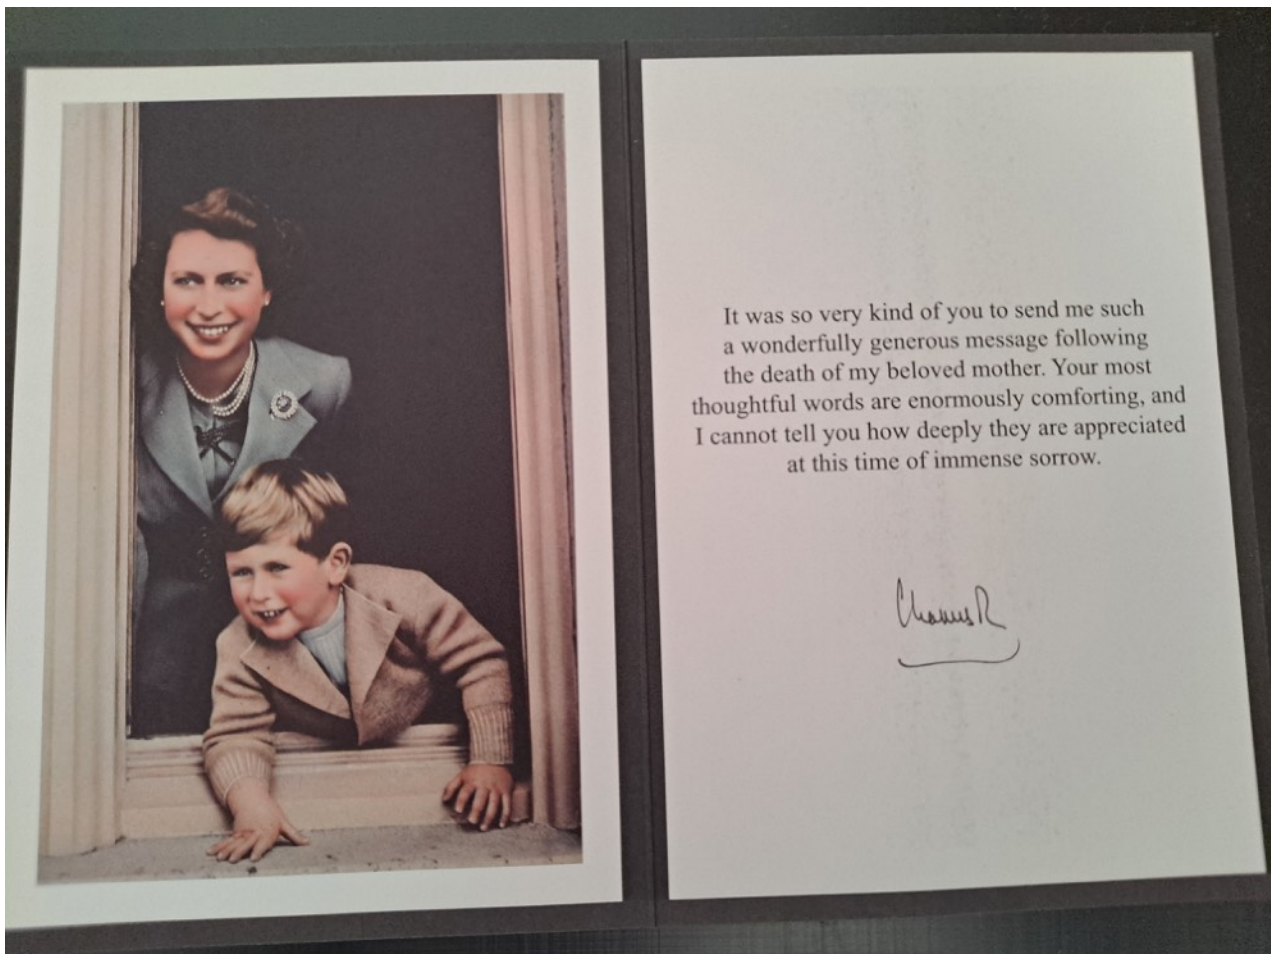

Arrive from 11am – the ceremony will start at 11.30.

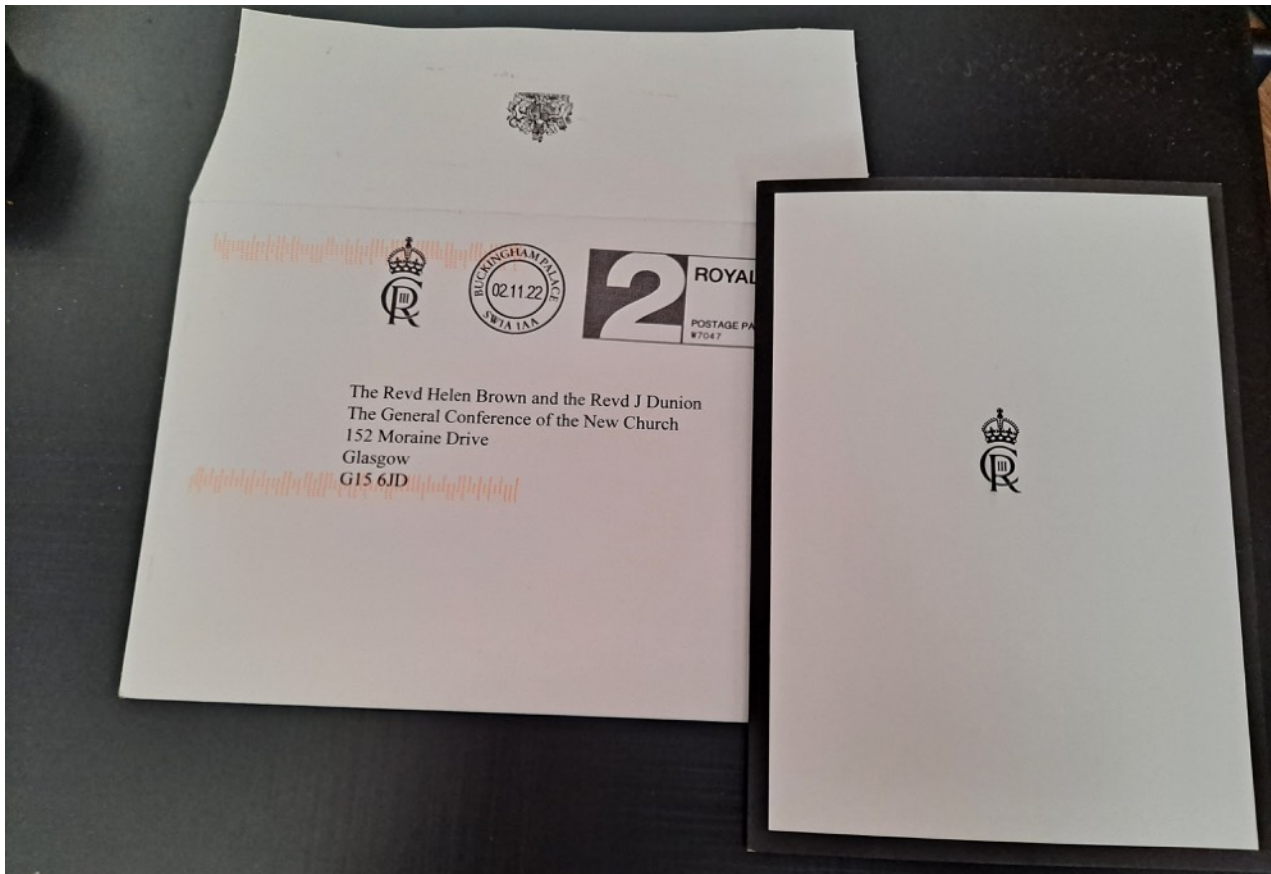

Informal dress fine. Maddy loved bright colours!

R.S.V.P. helen@soul-life.co.uk for catering please.

Letter from the King

You will recall we recently published a letter of condolence which was sent to King Charles and the Royal Family. We have had a reply in the form of a card, which has a lovely picture and some heartfelt words. Please see the photos below.

Advent Calendar 2022 - Ready to Go

Gemma McLean writes:

Thank you to everyone that sent me contributions for this year's advent calendar. I am pleased to say I now have 24 pieces of Christmas music ready to integrate in to this year's calendar.

IT Scam Warnings

Gemma McLean writes:

Please watch out for a scam email that was sent from Revd Bruce Jarvis' Tiscali email address asking for a favour. This was obviously not sent by him and it should be deleted.

Don't forget, any emails asking for a favour, especially involving the purchasing of vouchers of some sort should be treated as a scam. If you think it might be genuine, please phone the person to confirm directly.

Also, don't ever click on links within emails saying you can "click here to view your bill". Even if you think the email is genuine, you can just go to the company's official web site, login and view your bill that way, and not via the link in the email.
