Advertising National Events after Zoom Worship

Revd Becky Jarratt writes:

Some of you may have noticed that during the closing slides of Zoom Worship recently, an advert for May Family Weekend at Purley Chase came up on screen.

The Zoom Worship Providers Team are running a pilot of showing adverts for national events at the end of services. If you have a national event coming up and would like it advertised, we will be happy to do so, on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please send details of what you would like to be advertised, to Muriel Morgan: muriel.morgan@generalconference.org.uk. Any feedback on this pilot is also appreciated.

Bradford New Church Centenary Celebrations

Gwendolen Rowe writes:

Bradford New Church have decided to postpone their 100th Anniversary celebrations until early 2024 when it will celebrate the Centenary of when the Church first opened for Worship as opposed to 100 years since the Foundation stone was laid. This will give us more planning time and endeavour to avoid clashing with other events.
