News of Friends

Margaret Cowie writes:

Mr. Chris Chambers

Readers will sorry to hear that Chris Chambers, President of New Church College (SOLCe), has recently been quite unwell, and needed to spend time in hospital for treatment. He is now home, and recuperating. We send Chris our warmest best wishes for a speedy recovery; and send greetings to his wife Helen, and their two sons Paul and Mark.

Mrs. Margaret Presland

Those of you fortunate enough to attend Conference 2023 will be aware that Margaret Presland was retiring from her role as Conference Bookings Secretary. She succeeded Mrs Enid Nicholls in this voluntary role in 2012, and for a few years shared the work with Mrs Isabel Hindley.

For twelve years she diligently, and some might say “patiently”, waited for the forms to arrive, dealt with the payments (not an easy task!) allocated rooms, and was always there to hand out the keys and answer questions when we arrived. It was Margaret’s eye for detail that ensured a happy stay at Conference. We are indebted to her for her work and wish her the joy freedom from the computer brings!

Our Company Secretary, Natalie Welch, will take over the role of Conference Bookings Secretary

Mrs. Joy Hasler

News has been received of the death of Joy Hasler, who passed peacefully into the spiritual world on Saturday 4th November at the age of 91 years. Joy, the widow of the Revd Christopher Hasler, had lived contentedly for a number of years in a nursing home in Aylesford, Kent. She had remained alert and aware of her family visiting her almost to the end. Although she will be sorely missed by her family and close friends, we rejoice that she is now enjoying life in that dimension where we grow younger, and meeting up with those who have gone ahead. Most of all, we can imagine the delight of meeting up with her beloved Christopher. The funeral has been arranged for Friday 1st December, to be conducted by the Revd Clifford Curry.

We close by sending love and best wishes to Joy and Christopher’s six children – Bernard, Ruth, Gwen, Peter, Caroline and Stephanie – their partners, and the grandchildren. The Lord bless you all.
