Where am I headed after I die?

You've asked, I've asked,
every thinking person asks.
"Where am I headed after I die?" What's in store for me?
Will I still be conscious? Will I still be me? Will I meet up with loved ones?

This workshop is for you if you have an inkling that we do survive death and you want to know more about Emanuel Swedenborg's famous visionary experiences of the afterlife. He claimed to have been through the dying process and found out what happened afterwards. The workshop will explore what life can mean according to what he heard and saw in the spirit realm.

What is this afterlife like? Is there time and space there? Is it a happy state? Will I be the same person as I am now? Will more of my faults show? Can I become a better person?

The Workshop leader, Stephen Russell-Lacy, is a retired clinical psychologist. He will be facilitating participation by providing a focus, providing information, asking questions, and setting exercises. Those attending will be helped to bring the ideas alive by sharing relevant personal perspectives.

Final Audited Accounts

Conference Council is pleased to inform you that the final audited accounts for the financial year 2023-24 are now available. Should you wish to see the full accounts, they are available from the Company Secretary, email: natalie.welch@generalconference.org.uk

We apologise for the delay, and that it was not possible to present them in their final form at the Annual Meeting of Conference in July.

We hope you will understand the complex detailed work involved in the preparation of the accounts to ensure that they both accurate and understandable by Members. The Council greatly appreciates the effort made by our new Company Accountant, Paul Mehew, to prepare and present them.

Finally, the Council thanks you all for your patience.

On behalf of Conference Council,
Margaret Cowie, Chairperson
Natalie Welch – Company Secretary
