October Family Weekend 2024

Revd Becky Jarratt writes:

Over fifty adults, teenagers and children spent two nights together at Purley Chase Centre at the end of October looking at the theme of “Appearances” in different ways.

The young people’s groups looked at, among other things, different aspects of the story of David. The adults looked at the Adam and Eve story and appearances of truth surrounding this. They looked at how we, being created and finite, can only ever be in such appearances of truth, and that not even the angels can be in truths in their purest form. This shows how the Lord can work with each one of us all from wherever we are in our faith and understanding.

We enjoyed the friendship and fellowship of being together, and shared in varied forms of worship. We were also very lucky with the weather, and spent time on walks and in the groups of Purley Chase, which are absolutely beautiful at this time of year.
