Working Party at Seaburn Dene New Church

Lynne Griffiths writes:

The weekend of 25th/26th January saw members of the New Church Young Peoples Committee run a working party at Seaburn Dene New Church. The church, ran solely by volunteers, reached out to NCYPC in 2024 and were delighted they agreed to visit and help.

Many young people travelled for a day of water sports and manual work at the church on Saturday with a brave number sleeping over at the church also. Many, many thanks to NCYPC for - cleaning and redoing the noticeboard - cleaning some windows inside - laying paving slabs at the back door creating a cleaner entrance - painting the flower room and extension wall in church - filling pot holes in the car park with gravel - emptying under the stairs and giving it all a good clean ensuring we comply with fire regs. - taking unwanted items to the tip for disposal - gardening and removing a significant amount of dead wood/overgrown trees and many other things I've probably forgotten!

We can't thank the young people (and some of their parents!) enough for their time and effort which is deeply appreciated by all who use the church premises with the building in use a minimum of 6 days a week currently. Thank you also to Geoff and Fraser Nicholls for completing the second coat of paint where needed and painting the ceiling in the flower room.

Isn't it amazing what we can do when we come together?!
