Pauline Grimshaw

Carolyn Kennion writes:

Sunday 16th March was an emotional day for everyone at Kearsley Church. We were all sad that the morning service was the last one that Pauline Grimshaw would attend before moving into a care home near Stourbridge later that day. Revd. Brian Talbot had invited Pauline to choose hymns for the service. Afterwards we had a special cake and Pauline was presented with a photo album to remind her of happy times with Kearsley Church friends. John Ford read out a letter of appreciation for Pauline's outstanding contribution to the Kearsley Society over many years, since arriving there with her husband, the late Revd. Bill Grimshaw. Following the passing of Bill, and the loss of subsequent ministerial services, Pauline stepped into the breach and, over the years, led worship, played the organ, was newsletter editor, treasurer and later church secretary, as well as doing many other tasks such as unlocking for meetings, workmen etc. Sadly, Pauline's declining health has meant that she reluctantly had to give up working for the church that she loves. We all miss her cheerful presence very much. She is now living near to one of her daughters.
