Mr Alan Bowie

The Conference and the New Church College (SOLCe) owe a huge debt of gratitude to Alan Bowie. As has already been reported in E-News Issue 250 he passed into the Spiritual World on January 14th after a long battle with Parkinson's Disease.

Alan studied alongside Revds Jack Dunion and Esther Byrne doing virtually all the modules that they studied but having no intention of becoming an ordained minister. In 2006 he graduated with a Level Three Certificate in Swedenborgian Studies. He didn't just stop there. His love of the New Church and its Teachings drove him to serve SOLCe as a valued member of the Education Committee for at least nine years and tutored several students in 'Synoptic Gospels', 'Acts and Epistles' and 'Old Testament Themes,' amongst others. He also wrote the modules entitled 'Skills in Swedenborgian Studies' and 'Introduction to Swedenborgian Thought' and revised 'Survey of Christian Doctrine'. He wrote most of the worksheets at the end of each session of many of the modules and developed the very first website and became the Web Master.

He supported almost our entire ordained ministry as they studied modules and became ministers.

Thank you, Alan!

"Well done, good and faithful servant."

Matthew 25:21
